Greetings, and Happy New Year!

Yes, Happy New Year! I say that for a couple of reasons:

1. In our country we all tend to look at September as the start of a new year for school students and Sunday schools, and that has tended to shape our church schedules into starting new things in the fall as well. People are ending vacations and the summer, and are gearing up for re-entry into the normal routine and preparing for the holidays to come. And...
2. Looking at our Judeo-Christian heritage, 2019 Rosh Hashanah begins before sundown on Sunday, September 29th and ends before nightfall on October 1st. It is the start of the Jewish New Year and is closely followed by 2019 Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, sundown October 8 to nightfall October 9.

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, along with the two other fall holidays of Sukkot and Simchat Torah are known as the High Holy Days (AKA Days of Awe) that start off the new Jewish year. But for now, I focus upon Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

Rosh Hashanah covers the first two full days of the new year. It actually means "Head of the Year," and what Jews do and how they act on Rosh Hashanah is said to have a big impact on the rest of the year, just like the head/brain has an impact on the rest of the body. For the Jewish community during this time, "all inhabitants of the world pass before (God) like a flock of sheep..." and decisions are made in heaven about the future of each person. While prayers continue year round, Rosh Hashanah is a time for deep intentional prayers for peace and blessings, and praise of God to proclaim "(God) as King of the universe." The ten days after Rosh Hashanah, before Yom Kippur, are referred to as the "Ten Days of Repentance" or "Ten Days of Return" before atonement takes place. This time is a "return" to, or reconciliation with God in sincere repentance of one's sins, and is the time when each draws closer and closer to God. Rosh Hashanah and the Ten Days of Repentance/Return usher in the holiest day of the Jewish year, Yom Kippur.

Yom Kippur (Yom = Day of; Kippur = Atonement), is the day when Jews are closest to God, and to who they really are in their very souls. "In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall deny yourselves, and shall do no work, neither the citizen nor the alien who resides among you. For on this day atonement shall be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before the Lord." (Lev. 16:29-30 NRSV) For the almost 26 hours of Yom Kippur, their time is spent in the synagogue abstaining from food and drink, washing/bathing, lotions/creams, wearing leather shoes, and marital relations so that time is spent in prayer asking for forgiveness. The very first Yom Kippur happened with Moses. After the people sinned in their worship of the golden calf, Moses ascended Mount Sinai and prayed to God to forgive them. After two 40-day periods on the mountain, day Moses came down having received the forgiveness of God for the people, and their relationship reconciled. That was their first Day of Atonement / Yom Kippur.

So what? What does that have to do with us today as Christians?

Well - - let's not forget that Jesus was Jewish. He was a rebel by today's standards (or labels), and as his Trinitarian identity was making its presence known bit by bit in his ministry here on earth, he was also exposing and teaching what needed to change with Jewish belief in his time then AND going forward in our lives today, even though we are Christians. What was important to stress between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur was the need for the Jews to be close to God, to confess and repent their sins, and to do their part to atone/reconcile their relationship with God so that they can be forgiven and washed clean of their sins. Sound familiar?

As Christians, Jesus has taught us that the relationship with God is key, and to maintain that relationship with love is the strongest and most valuable of any relationship. And while special days are great for reflections and deep prayers about our lives and how we live (or do NOT live), he made it clear that God is ALWAYS available. God's grace surrounds us and because of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, forgiveness, total cleansing, and atonement is just a heartbeat away! Lent, Holy Week with Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday seem to be the closest version of designated days for personal reflection, confession, and repentance we have to Rosh Hashanah and the Ten Days of Repentance/Return. But the difference is Easter! Because of Easter, our day of atonement (Yom Kippur) can be any day or moment of the year! We are Easter people – for us, Easter is every day! Every time we open ourselves to God to confess and repent, we receive that grace that cleanses and forgives and makes us anew! It is a new day, a new year every time we are reconciled with God!!

So, HAPPY NEW YEAR everyone!!
Happy LIFE ANEW everyday all because of Jesus Christ!!

Laurie, your pastor

Fall Sunday Scripture Schedule, Plus...

Here are the scriptures that are scheduled for each Sunday in September and October. They are subject to change should there be a substitute preacher, or if the Holy Spirit moves me to change one or two... I generally pick two of the four to focus on each Sunday, and often use the Psalter reading as a call to worship. Feel free to read them in anticipation of the Sunday services' messages! For Sept. 8th, I encourage you to read the Epistle lesson. The Letter to Philemon* is very short; in fact it is only one short chapter and relays the importance of "what Philemon does with the slave is not entirely a personal matter, but a public concern for the church, a community of grace that inevitably shapes the values of its individuals."¹

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

This fall, our lessons focus on God, what it means that we are created in God's image, and what it means to worship God alone.

Sundays at 10:30 a.m. in the Church Lounge

Bill Bryan Facilitator

As United Methodists let's endeavor to live into the mission of our denomination:

The mission of the Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Local churches and extension ministries of the Church provide the most significant arenas through which disciple-making occurs.

The mission aligns with what members have said matters most. In a 2014 survey, United Methodists named "creating disciples of Christ" as the most important issue facing the church today—ahead of all of the issues that get far more headlines.

Each time we recite the Commendation and Welcome of our "Service for the Reception of New Members" we affirm this. We, as members of our congregation, are taking responsibility for each other, for the love and care of each other.

We should not delegate the role of "making disciples" to our pastor alone. We can fulfill our vow to watch over one another in love through Wesleyan-styled small groups such as our Adult Sunday School Group.

Please contact Bill Bryan at bill@langhornechurch.org or 215-847-2130 to enroll. Our first class will be on RALLY DAY, Sunday, September 8, 2019.

Stewardship News

Words to Live By:

September: FAITH

Faith as defined by Merriam Webster Dictionary:

Complete trust or confidence in someone or something.

Strong belief in God or in the doctrines of a religion, based on spiritual apprehension rather than proof

A quote from Martin Luther:

“Faith is permitting ourselves to be seized by the things we cannot see.”

Scriptures on Faith

John 3:16

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.”

Hebrews 11:1-6

So we can say with confidence,

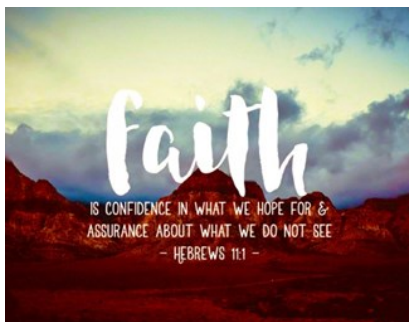

“The Lord is my helper;

I will not be afraid.

What can anyone do to me?”

Matthew 17:20

“He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.”

Good Morning members of the Langhorne United Methodist Church. My name is Christopher Stockburger. I am a Boy Scout in Troop 99 and a member of the Church. I would like to complete my Eagle Scout Project at the church since the church has been such a large part of my life. My Eagle project is to install safety rails in the hallway from Fellowship hall and down to the Lounge. These rails will assist members of the church to the sanctuary, fellowship hall, the halls leading to the bathrooms, the nursery, and the Lounge. These rails are a part of the Church Eastern PA Conference safety checklist that the church completes every year.

If you would like to make a donation to the project you can label a separate envelope under "Christopher Stockburger BSA project". If you have any questions; feel free to email me at Stock.chris01@gmail.com. Thank you for your support of the church and the Boy Scouts of America.
